

Date Submitted: 11/25/2014 3:47:35 PM

Position Information

Position Title: Staff Psychologist

Institution: Duke University

Department: Counseling & Psychological Services

Position Description: Duke University's Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) is searching for a full-time Staff Psychologist and invites applications from qualified candidates. Candidates must be strong generalists who provide services through a multicultural framework and can provide multimodal treatment and interventions to emerging adults. Modalities include group psychotherapy, didactic/experiential group interventions, individual counseling, outreach, consultation, and crisis intervention. Strong preference will be given to candidates with university counseling center experience in a multidisciplinary setting with service to undergraduate, graduate and professional students, and demonstrated experience/commitment working with diverse individuals and communities from varying sexual orientations, gender identities, and ethnically, racially, and internationally diverse backgrounds. The ideal candidate will have experience and/or interest in group therapy and developing community level interventions aimed at education as well as culture/climate change, demonstrated experience providing mental health consultation to various university constituents, and a strong Student Affairs identity.

Salary: Commensurate with Experience

Start Date: 8/22/15

Qualifications: This position requires a doctorate in clinical or counseling psychology from an APA accredited academic program and internship. Interested individuals should be licensed or license-eligible in the state of North Carolina and have demonstrated competency with and be eligible to provide supervision, training, and mentoring of psychology interns and/or advanced practicum students, preferably with experience in APA accredited programs.

Institution Description: Located in Durham, North Carolina, Duke University, a distinctive institution of higher education with an internationally recognized medical center, has an enrollment of approximately 6,500 undergraduates and 8,300 graduate and professional students. Duke's mission is to provide a superior liberal education to undergraduate students, to prepare future members of the learned professions for lives of skilled and ethical service by providing excellent graduate and professional education, to advance the frontiers of knowledge and contribute boldly to the international community of scholarship, to promote an intellectual environment built on a commitment to free and open inquiry, to provide wide ranging educational opportunities, and to promote a deep appreciation for the range of human difference and potential. Cultural opportunities are plentiful and readily available to members of the Duke community.

Date Submitted: 11/25/2014 3:47:35 PM

Region Description: Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill. Research Triangle Park.

Additional information (if applicable): CAPS is the primary counseling center for the Duke student community and emphasizes a multicultural and multimodal approach to providing services, aiming to address the complex needs of students on individual as well as community/collective levels. Its multidisciplinary clinical staff is comprised of seventeen permanent staff members including psychologists, social workers and psychiatrists. Additionally, there are three doctoral psychology interns in its APA accredited training program, two social work interns, two to three psychiatry residents, one post graduate, and five administrative staff.

Application Instructions

Contact Name: Wanda Collins, Ph.D.

Contact Email: wanda.collins@duke.edu

Contact Phone: (919) 660-1000

How to apply: Applicants are required to complete the Duke HR application at <http://www.hr.duke.edu/jobs/main.html> (reference #400899856). Interested applicants should submit electronic copies of the following: a letter of interest, vita, and the names and contact information of three references. Please also email materials to wanda.collins@duke.edu with "Psychologist Position" in the subject line. Duke University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.

Application deadline: 30-Jan-15