

Oxford College is the two-year division of Emory University, located 38 miles east of Atlanta, on a beautiful 19th century campus. Students at Oxford pursue a rigorous course of study in a supportive learning environment. Roughly 15% of Oxford's 950 students are internationals; Oxford College is Emory's most ethnically, culturally, racially and religiously diverse academic unit. Oxford features an intensive liberal arts curriculum with particular strengths in service/learning, student leadership development, and engaged community life. For more information about Oxford College, go to: <http://www.emory.edu/OXFORD>

Counseling and Career Services of Oxford College is seeking a bright, positive, hard-working, flexible, culturally humble, and team-oriented individual to join our small multidisciplinary staff in providing evidenced-based clinical services and outreach programming to our diverse student body.

Responsibilities of the position include: conducting intake evaluations, risk assessments, and triage assessments; providing time-limited psychotherapy services (including individual, couples, group therapies and crisis intervention); developing and fostering relationships with faculty and staff; providing referral and consultation services; supervising therapy practicum students; and offering campus outreach.

Minimum Qualifications/Requirements:

- Licensed Clinical Social Worker, or licensed/ license- eligible PhD or PsyD in Counseling or Clinical Psychology;
- 2 years prior counseling center experience or experience providing mental health services to a young adult, diverse population.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience leading stress management/mindfulness groups.
- Experience providing strengths-based or solution-focused counseling.
- Experience with crisis intervention and collaborative work within multidisciplinary team.

The successful candidate would:

- be capable of managing a busy caseload
- have the ability to handle spontaneous work demands while undertaking projects that require advance planning
- possess a strong work ethic and a willingness to collaborate
- have proficiency in oral and written communication, public speaking, and leading group discussions
- have broad "generalist" clinical skills in assessing and intervening with a wide range of disorders, concerns, and degrees of pathology in treatment utilizing a time limited model of care

- be available and willing to provide occasional evening or weekend outreach programs.

This position is an annual 9 month appointment. Please note: the salary range noted above is based on compensation for a 12 month appointment.

To apply, please submit a cover letter and vita. Position will be open until filled with preference given to completed applications received by 4/25/2016. Anticipated start date: August 15, 2016. If you have questions about this position, contact Sandi Schein, Director, Counseling and Career Services, at sschein@emory.edu.

Note: Electronic submission of application materials is required. For additional information about this position and to apply, please visit <http://www.hr.emory.edu/eu/careers/index.html>.

On the Emory HR website, this position is listed as Social Worker II, Job Requisition # 60514BR