Position Information

Position Title: Psychologist/Social Worker

Institution: UNC Charlotte

Department: Counseling Center

Position Description: The Counseling Center at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte is hiring a staff clinician for a permanent, full-time position to begin in January 2015. Responsibilities include individual and group therapy, outreach and consultation, assessment, and supervision.

The UNC Charlotte Counseling Center is IACS-accredited, and the predoctoral internship program is APA-accredited.

Salary: Competitive

Start Date: 1/5/2015

Qualifications: Required qualifications include a completed terminal degree in psychology or social work, eligibility for North Carolina licensure as a psychologist or clinical social worker, completion of an APA-accredited internship or equivalent social work placement, strong skills as a clinician within a brief therapy model, clinical experience with young adults, demonstrated multicultural competency, and enthusiasm and skill for collaboration within the Center and throughout the University community. Clinical and supervisory experience in a college or university counseling center is preferred.

Institution Description: The University of North Carolina at Charlotte stakes its claim as the state's urban research university. As the region's only public doctoral-granting institution, UNC Charlotte is a driving force of growth, discovery and innovation for the greater Mecklenburg Country metropolitan statistical area. With more than 27,300 enrolled students, including roughly 5,000 master's and doctoral candidates, UNC Charlotte is the second-largest institution in the UNC system. It leverages its location in the state's largest city to offer internationally competitive programs of research and creative activity and exemplary undergraduate, graduate and professional programs coupled with a focused set of community engagement initiatives that enrich the region's quality of life.

Region Description: Charlotte and the surrounding 11-county metropolitan region includes 2.3 million people and offers easy access to the Blue Ridge Mountains and Atlantic beaches.
