Position Title: Staff Counselors or Staff Psychologists

Institution: University of Southern Indiana

Department: Counseling Center

Position Description: The University of Southern Indiana invites applicants for three (3) Staff Counselors or Staff Psychologists in the Counseling Center. Under the supervision of the Director, these individuals evaluate mental, emotional and behavioral health; provide therapy/counseling on an individual and/or group basis; evaluate and triage mental health crises; engage in outreach activities; document all clinical contacts and services; and provide other services designed to assist with the personal, educational and life-direction development of students. Successful applicants will work from a time-limited model of psychotherapy and will be able to maintain a full caseload (determined in conjunction with the Director).

All three (3) positions will provide direct clinical services to students, but are differentiated by their areas of emphasis. The three emphases are as follows:

1. Clinical ' Direct provision of clinical services.
2. Supervision ' Direct provision of clinical services and the supervision of student interns.
3. Diversity ' Direct provision of multiculturally competent counseling and outreach to under-represented groups.

Start Date: 8/22/15

Qualifications: A master's or doctoral degree in counseling, psychology, social work or other related human services area is required. Must be licensed (or eligible for licensure within an agreed upon period of time) as a psychologist, clinical social worker, mental health counselor or marriage and family therapist in the state of Indiana. Clinical supervision toward post-degree hours may be provided onsite if necessary for licensure.

Must have training as a generalist, but will also have developed specialized skills for working with certain populations or presenting concerns. Special skills and experience relevant to eating disorders, substance abuse, trauma and/or group therapy, is strongly desired. Strong interpersonal skills and a willingness to work as part of a diverse team is required. Experience in a university/college counseling center is strongly preferred.
